It is to be construed that privileges and immunities are accorded to the Delegates of a Member or Signatory or a Partner Country, not for the personal benefit of the individuals themselves, but in order to safeguard the independent exercise of their functions in connection with the ISA Secretariat. Consequently, each Member/ Signatory/ Partner Country not only has the right but is under a duty to waive the immunity of its Delegate where such immunity would impede the course of justice, and it can be waived without prejudice to the purpose for which the immunity is accorded. The ISA Secretariat shall encourage Member/ Signatory/ Partner Country, to waive immunity of its Delegate(s) in any case where such immunity would impede the course of justice.

Section 16

Notwithstanding any other privileges, immunities, exemptions and facilities accorded under this Agreement:

a. The Director General shall be accorded the privileges and immunities, exemptions and facilities in conformity with Section 19 of the United Nations (Privileges and Immunities) Act, 1947; and his/her rank shall be equivalent to that of the diplomatic envoy, in accordance with international law;

Explanatory note: It shall be noted that the rank of Director General shall be equivalent to that of Ambassadors Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary and High Commissioners of Commonwealth countries accredited to India.

b. The Director General will specify the categories of officials to which the provisions of privileges and immunities shall apply in accordance with Section 17 of the United Nations (Privileges and Immunities) Act, 1947;

c. The officials of the ISA in conformity to Section 18 of the United Nations (Privileges and Immunities) Act, 1947 shall:
i. Be immune from legal process in respect of words spoken or written and all acts performed by them in their official capacity;

ii. Be exempt from taxation on the salaries and emoluments paid of them by the ISA;

iii. Be immune from national service obligations;

iv. Be immune, together with their spouses and relative’s dependent of them, from immigration restrictions and alien registration;

v. Be accorded the same privileges in respect of exchange facilities as are accorded to the officials of comparable rank forming part of the diplomatic missions.

Section 17

In concurrence to dispositions made in Section 15 and Section 16, Experts on Mission for ISA Secretariat shall be accorded the following privileges and immunities in so far as is necessary for the exercise of their functions, including the time spent on journeys in connection with such functions:

a. Immunity from personal arrest or detention and immunity from legal process in respect of words spoken or written and all acts done by them in their capacity as experts, which shall continue to be accorded, even after the persons concerned have ceased to be an expert on mission for ISA;

b. Inviolability of all papers, documents and official material;

c. The right to use codes and to receive papers and correspondence by courier or in sealed bags, for the purposes of their communications with ISA;

d. The same facilities in respect of currency and exchange restrictions as are accorded to ISA staff members;

e. The same immunities and facilities in respect of their personal baggage(s) as are accorded to ISA staff member.

Section 18

In addition to the dispositions included in Section 16, Staff of the ISA Secretariat who are not nationals of the Host Country shall enjoy within and with respect to the Host Country the following facilities and privileges:

a. freedom to acquire or maintain within in the Host Country foreign securities, foreign currency accounts and other movables and the right to take the same out of the Host Country through authorized channels in accordance with the relevant Host Country regulations;

b. the same privileges in respect of currency exchange facilities as are accorded to staff of comparable ranks forming part of diplomatic missions.
Section 19

a. their furniture, household and personal effects, in one or more separate shipments, and thereafter to import necessary additional household personal effects in their ownership or possession or already ordered by them and intended for their personal use or for their establishment within four (4) months of their first entry into the Host Country;

b. one motor vehicle which may be sold in the Host Country, subject to the Host Country regulations concerning payment of customs duties;

c. reasonable quantities of articles intended for personal consumption in accordance with existing Government regulations;

d. the above goods shall be imported within four months of a Staff member’s first entry into the Host Country.

Section 20

Section 21

WAIVER OF PRIVILEGES AND IMMUNITIES

Privileges and immunities are accorded to the Staff of the ISA Secretariat not for the personal benefit of the individuals themselves, but in order to safeguard the independent exercise of their functions in connection with the ISA Secretariat. Consequently, the Director General shall not only have the right but is under a duty to waive the immunity of Staff in any case where, the immunity would impede the course of justice and it can be waived without prejudice to the purpose for which the immunity is accorded.

Such immunities may be waived by the following authorities:

a. For Delegates of Members/Signatories and their immediate dependents: the Member/Signatory State concerned;

b. For the Director General and his/her family: the Assembly;

c. For members of Staff and Immediate Dependents and members of their families: the Director General.
In all cases, such waiver must be expressly waived in writing.

Section 22

The ISA Secretariat shall cooperate at all times with the appropriate authorities of the Host Country to facilitate the proper administration of justice, to secure the observance of police regulations, and to prevent the occurrence of any abuse in connection with the privileges, immunities and facilities referred to in this Article.

If the host country considers that there has been an abuse of a privilege or immunity conferred by this Agreement, consultations shall be held between the Government and the Director General to determine whether any such abuse has occurred and, if the abuse of privilege or immunity is confirmed the Government of the Host Country might consider requesting departure from the Host Country and consider the person persona non grata.

ARTICLE XI

SETTLEMENT OF DISPUTES

Section 23

The ISA Secretariat and the Government shall make provisions for appropriate modes of settlement of:

a. disputes arising out of contracts and other disputes of a private law character to which the ISA Secretariat is a party;

b. disputes involving a member of staff of the ISA Secretariat who, by reason of his or her official position, enjoys immunity, if such immunity has not been waived.

Section 24

Any dispute between the Parties concerning the interpretation or application of this Agreement or any question affecting the Headquarters or relations between the Parties that is not settled by negotiation or other agreed mode of settlement shall be referred for final and binding decision to a tribunal of three arbitrators at the request of either Party. The arbitration shall be held in a place, mutually agreed upon between the Parties. For the purposes of the implementation of this Section:

a. each Party shall appoint and brief one arbitrator and advise the other Party of the name of its arbitrator. In the event that within thirty (30) days of the request for arbitration either Party has not appointed an arbitrator, either Party may request the President of the International Court of Justice to appoint an arbitrator. The third arbitrator, who shall be chairman of the tribunal, shall be chosen by the first two arbitrators. Should the first two arbitrators fail to agree upon the third within six (6) months of their appointment, the third arbitrator shall be chosen by the President of the International Court of Justice at the request of either Party;

b. a majority vote of the arbitrators shall be sufficient to reach a decision, including decisions on procedural matters, which shall be final and binding; and

c. the expenses of arbitration shall be borne by the Parties as laid down in the arbitral award.

ARTICLE XII

SUPPLEMENTAL AGREEMENTS

Section 25
The ISA Secretariat and the Government may enter into such supplemental agreements as may be necessary to give full effect to this Agreement.

ARTICLE XIII

GENERAL PROVISIONS

Section 26

a. Government of the Host Country shall not, on account of the ISA Secretariat activities on its territory, assume any international responsibility for acts or omissions of the ISA Secretariat or for those officials in the exercise of their duties;

b. Nothing in this Agreement shall be construed as in any way limiting the right of the Host Country to take measures to safeguard its own security in the implementation of this Agreement;

c. The ISA Secretariat shall co-operate at all times with the competent Indian authorities in order to facilitate the proper administration of justice, to ensure that security and safety regulations are complied with and to prevent any abuse which could arise out of the privileges, immunities and facilities provided for in this Agreement;

d. This Agreement may only be modified by written agreement between the Parties hereto. The Parties in keeping with the relevant resolutions and decisions of the ISA Secretariat shall settle any relevant matter for which no provision is made in this Agreement. Each Party shall give full and sympathetic consideration to any proposal advanced by the other Party under this Section.

ARTICLE XIV

ENTRY INTO FORCE AND DURATION
Section 27

a. Both Parties shall notify each other in writing of the completion of their respective internal procedures required for the entry into force of this Agreement. The Agreement shall enter into force on the day following the date of the receipt of the second notification;

b. This Agreement shall apply until the date of the first meeting of the Assembly of ISA and shall continue to remain into force beyond that date provided that no substantial modifications are required to be made in the present Agreement;

c. In the event of substantial modification required or as may be determined by the ISA Assembly, the same has to be signed by the Director General of the ISA and the Government of the Host Country.
IN WITNESS WHEREOF the undersigned, being duly authorized representatives of the Parties, have signed this Agreement and have affixed their seals hereto.

Executed in New Delhi, Republic of India, on the 26th day of March, 2018 in two originals, in the English, Hindi and French languages each text be equally authentic.
