Subject: Extension of time for member comments on the provisional Rules of Procedure - until 29 March 2019

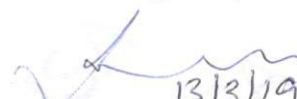

Your Excellency

The ISA Secretariat presents its compliments to the Members of the ISA and has the honour to convey its sincere appreciation for their continued support.

Further in continuation to the email dated 26th Feb 2019 seeking Member comments, if any, on the provisional Rules of Procedures, this is to inform your Excellency that the time for providing the comments, if any, has been extended until 29 March 2019. Comments received from Members on or before this date will be referred to the General and Legal Committee for their consideration.

The ISA Secretariat avails itself of this opportunity to renew to its Members the assurances of its highest consideration.

With regards,

13/3/19
