As a key representative of the DG's office, you will also be responsible for building and managing effective relationships with internal and external stakeholders to ensure that the DG office's outputs are delivered in an efficient and timely manner.

Tasks for example include (but are not limited to):

- Acting as the point of contact among executives, staff, clients, and other external partners
- Managing information flow in a timely and accurate manner
- Managing DG's calendars and setting up meetings
- Make travel and accommodation arrangements (as per DG's requirements)
- Prepare weekly/monthly/quarterly reports (or at any stage that DG would request)
- Format information for internal and external communication memos, emails & presentations.
- Take minutes during meetings
- Screen and direct phone calls and distribute correspondence

What you will need to succeed

- At least 10 Years' experience as an Executive Associate or similar role (in energy and climate domain preferred).
- Proficiency in MS Office
- Outstanding organizational and time management skills
- Excellent verbal and written communications skills
- A clear understanding of the need to maintain confidentiality, integrity and discretion
- Substantial experience of liaising with external stakeholders and key relationships effectively to foster positive working relationships
- University Graduate

Languages:

Fluency in English (both oral and written) is required.

Your place of Work:

If successful (with the recruitment), you will be based at the DG's office, ISA Secretariat, ISA, India, on a full-time basis (2-year term, with a possibility of extension, as per ISA Rules & Regulations).

Your pay and benefits:

The ISA strives to achieve gender parity at all levels as it proceeds with the recruitment of both locally and internationally recruited staff. In this regard, female candidates are strongly encouraged to apply for all positions within the organization. The ISA primarily recruits staff from its member countries. The ISA strives to obtain a staff reflecting its geographical representation and diversity.
